Handout #23: THE WORD

For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal [of human devising], but mighty through God to the pulling down [demolishing] of strongholds [fortresses], casting down imaginations [arguments, vain reasoning and analyzing] and every high thing [high mental thought or thing] that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God [THE WORD], and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.

2nd Corinthians 10:4-5

"We believe God's Word and know it is TRUE. Jeremiah 1:12 says that God watches over His Word to perform it, and Isaiah 55:11 says His Word will not return to Him void but will accomplish what it is sent to do. Knowing this, we can pray the Word about a situation and expect God-kind of results. The person we pray for has a free choice whether to accept what God has for him or her, and by praying the WORD on their behalf, we give them the benefit of choosing either life or death, blessing or cursing, going God's way or their own way (Deuteronomy 30:19). As we confess His Word, believe it, read it, speak it and act on it we begin to merge with it, and it becomes our way of life. As we live the Word, His strength, His ability, His peace, His love, His joy, His confidence, and His faith become ours. As we pray His Word, the weary ones, the weak ones, the deceived ones, the sick ones will be ministered to, protected by and brought greatly to our Good Shepherd."

SPECIAL WORD SCRIPTURES

1. Psalm 119 is the longest chapter in the Bible with 176 verses (all but a couple refer directly to the Word of God). Verse 9 tells us that the Word cleanses us. (This is typed by the brazen laver filled with water with which the priest washed himself in the Old Testament Tabernacle). Verse 24 tells us that the Word is our counselor. Verse 105 tells us that the Word is our guide. Verse 165 tells us that the Word gives us peace.
2. Psalm 107:20-He sent His Word and healed them and delivered them from all their destructions.

3. Mark 4 (This parable is repeated in Luke 8)-And he began again to teach by the seaside; and there was gathered unto Him a great multitude, so that He entered into a boat and sat on the sea, and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land. And He taught them many things by parables and said unto them in His doctrine, Hearken: Behold, there went out a sower to sow. And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it. And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth, and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of earth. But when the sun was up, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it withered away. And some fell among thorns and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. And other fell on good ground and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased and brought forth some thirtyfold and some sixty and some an hundred. And He said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And when He was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of Him the parable. And He said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God, but unto those who are outside all these things are done in parables, that seeing they may see and not perceive, and hearing they may hear and not understand, lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. And He said unto them, Know ye not this parable? And how, then will ye know all parables? The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the wayside, where the word is sown, but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. And these are they in the manner that are sown on stony ground, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness, and have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time; afterwards, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. And these are they that are sown among the thorns, such as hear the word. And the cares of this age and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And these are they that are sown on good ground; such as hear the word and receive it and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty and some an hundred.
4. John 1:1-In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
5. Ephesians 6:17-…the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

Psalm 138:2

A most interesting scripture about the Word of God comes from the Lord Himself in Psalm 138:2b, where He indicates that He values His Word even more than He values His own Name, the name whereby we are saved and whereby demons flee! And indeed John 1 tells us that He, as the Word, became flesh and dwelled among us.

...for Thou has magnified Thy word above all Thy name.

from Pat Carver Ministries, Inc.

Since God so loved the World that He gave His only Son, Jesus, and I have believed in Him and made Him my Lord (John 3:16, Romans 10:8-10), I am a new creature, old things have passed away, all things are new, and I am the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus (2nd Corinthians 5:17-21). I have been delivered from the authority and power of darkness (sickness, disease, worry, sadness, doubt, fear, loneliness, despair, rejection) and translated into the Kingdom of His Dear Son (Colossians 1:13). I am blessed with all spiritual blessings (Ephesians 1:13). There is no condemnation and I am free from the law of sin and death (Romans 8:1-2). I am more than a conqueror (Romans 8:37). I am healed and whole (1st Peter 2:24). I reign in life by Christ Jesus (Romans 5:17). I am complete in Him (Colossians 2:0-10).
